Seven Mary Three, Chasing You

No communication with you words don't believe the things they mean mean what you say say who you are

No communication with you this silence is thick but listen close I'm crawling through your radio

I can't keep a thought... Am I? chasing you, chasing you out chasing you, chasing you out

No communication with you The moment you leave the truth explodes from underneath her hiding place

I can't keep a thought... Am I? chasing you, chasing you out chasing you, chasing you out

It's make believe it's in your mind always in your mind it's deafening distance between conditioning you and I

I can't keep a thought... Am I? chasing you, chasing you out chasing you, chasing you out
