

Seven Mary Three, Devil's Holy Joke

It will take a fancy store for mom and dad to forget what they never had

It will only take one moment to make her believe she's something worth trying on

A little motivation goes a long way down down
down

I think a cigarette should smoke like the Devil's holy joke because he's laid one out on me

I think if everybody streamed from their TVs to your scene it would be O.K. with me

You can't keep a good thing on a string You've got to give it room to breath
It may leave an empty space

down
down

In every situation, heavy traffic
jams his sound
