

Seven Wiser, As Good As You Think

Seen your face in the window last night in the rain
Looks like you had a bad day today
You were throwing your things all over the place
Then you burned all the things that you hate

I, I can feel your pain
The pain you feel inside
Cause I've been there myself
And I, I can feel your pain
The pain you feel inside
Cause I'm not as good as you think

You called me up and asked me what I did today
I sat at a bar and drank the night away
And now I'm alone
Thinking about all the things that I've done wrong

I, I can feel your pain
The pain you feel inside
Cause i've been there myself
And I, I can feel your pain
The pain you feel inside
Cause I'm not as good as you think

As good as you think
