

Seven Wiser, Sick

What are these feelings through me?
How'd you get these thoughts in my mind?
Everything that lies around me
Is a joke for me to criticize
You've taken everything from me
Taken everything that I need
And now that everything's gone
There's nothing left for me

Can't you see the ones in need?
This isn't over

I'm sick of all this pain
So I take it all away
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die

I never thought I'd ever see
A day like this would ever come
And now we all need to stand
Stand high all as one
Take a look around you
Thanks to all you have
Cause it can all be gone just like that

How the fuck can you just go and take someone's life from under them?
I hope you die, I hope you rot in hell
If not I'll show you pain

I'm sick of all this pain
So I take it all away
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die

How the fuck can you just take someone's life away?

I'm sick of all this pain
So I take it all away
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die
