

Sevendust, Broken Down

It takes time
To heal the wound I've made along the way
If I'm blind
Open my eyes 'cause I need to see again

If I can feel again
Will you tell me now
Or wait til I'm broken down again
Save me now
I'm broken

If I bleed
My lies won't fill the emptiness inside
I just need
For something real to open up my mind

Breaking down
I'm breaking down
Breaking down
I'm breaking down
It takes time

If I can feel again
Will you tell me now
Or wait til I'm broken down again
Save me now
I'm broken

If I can feel again
Will you tell me now
Or wait til I'm broken down again
Save me now
I'm broken

It takes time
Breaking down
I'm breaking down
If I can feel again
