

Sevendust, Suffocate

Hate all the blood on my hands
And the sins that bleed from my soul
Take it all away make it
Go away

[BRIDGE]

Stand up for bein' the last one to control
(But) what you can't see is bein' the last one to know
[Repeat]

[CHORUS:]

Fade into a dream
Try and save me from myself now
Save me from myself now
Fallen from the world
If I could ever breathe in the Air maybe then I wouldn't suffocate

Face all the things that were
Real to me long ago to save my Name I never thought it would
Be such a long way to fall

[BRIDGE]

[CHORUS]
