

Sevenglory, All You Want

I always thought I was the one
The one to be the one you want
And everything is perfect like the movies
I'm not afraid of letting go
But don't get too close take it slow
Just look around I'm higher than the others

But what you want from me is not what I can give
And I will give it all away
I'll say a prayer tonight
And release this lie
Cause all of me is all you want

The lights turn down
The music fades
I'm so exposed the games I play
I can't believe the rest of you aren't standing

Chorus
