

Sevenglory, Even The Blues

You feel like your hope is gone
You feel like your right is wrong
And everybody knows the truth but you
Fear that you've missed your time
You've wasted it standing in line
And down here on your back you finally see
That all of the colors are made for you and me
Even the blues

Don't be afraid you don't have to be ok

You feel like your standing alone
A house but not a home
And friends don't seem to come as fast as they go
You've had some hard goodbyes
Stranded with tears in your eyes
And haunted by the things you can no longer see
All of the colors are made for you and me
Even the blues

Don't be afraid you don't have to be ok
Just forgive yourself enough to let go

Still there's something you cannot deny
Can't change it as hard as you try
A light that's shining over everything
And the pain will still be real
Though there's something else you feel
Beautiful things around you everywhere
All of the colors are made for you and me

Chorus

You feel that you've missed your time
You've wasted it standing in line
And on your back you finally see
All the colors were made for you and me

Chorus
