

Seventh Wonder, Victorious

One man to sail the oceans, one man to leave the ground behind Deep down we strive to be more than we are Tamed the fire and the world was ours

We build it up, reaching for the heavens
A pile of stone to stand the test of time
We brought light to shame the sun and we always found a way

I don't care if you don't care Because our dreams have always taken us where amazing fantasies become today's realities

We will be victorious
In the blink of an eye we ascend to the sky
We'll be glorious, victorious we rise
'cuz we're gonna be and won't stop 'til we are victorious

One man to split the atom,
One man to tread another world
Inside we know that we have what it takes Faster, stronger, higher than before

The spoken word, the ink on paper
Astounding beauty for the eyes and ears
All this, when we stand together
When we stand as one

I don't care if you don't care
Because our dreams have always taken us where
amazing fantasies become today's realities

We will be victorious
In the blink of an eye we ascend to the sky
We'll be glorious, victorious and somehow we'll rise to the challenge

But fading are our smiles
Confidence is fleeting Embrace this plight, and yield before the fire Understand, this time we cannot make it alone our failure is forever
Through the wind and rain Pushing through the masses went against the grain as she opened up our eyes for us to see Crying out, an angel to reveal her mystery
A savior in the dark,
I know she can sway their minds
I promise, she will never let us down,
Of course she will defend our way of life

Here we stand before the world
The solution is simple, the answer is her!
We'll send one of us, for all of us and the truth in her voice will be heard

We will be victorious
In the blink of an eye she'll be sent to the sky
We'll be glorious, victorious we rise
Yes we're gonna be victorious
