Severe Torture, Your Blood Is Mine

Son of god, I'll slay you It's time for reality And for mankind to see There's no truth in your words The scars on your forehead Are the proof of mass betrayal Finally crowned to bleed Sent to your final destiny

All the days of your existence
Weren't enough to take over my soul
I'll kill you instead: you vermin christ
The wounds on your skin
Infected, rotting
You don't feel the pain because your mind is bleeding

Your blood is mine

Veins sucked empty Swallowing madness Your words of salvation Nothing but a lie

You will not convince me You will not break me

Defending your fake identity
