

Sex Appeal, Baby I Miss You

You were always beside me
Every day and night
And your love was so healing
When i have to let go now
I will stay and fight
I wont give up this feeling

Maybe its because Im still in love with
You
You are always on my mind
Cant forget the nights we had together
I wish I could turn back time

You took my heart onto the highest mountain
You took my soul and we could dive into
The deepest fountain
But now I feel my life will never be the same
Now that youre gone
I dont know what went wrong

Oh baby I miss you
I cant live without you no no
Dont break my heart dont leave me
Standing all alone here in the rain
Feeling all the pain
Baby I miss you

When I want to be near you
I just close my eyes
Use my imagination
Then your love is so tender
Memories are strong
I can feel your temptation

Maybe its because I cant forget you
You are still a part of me
I know my heart will never ever stop bleeding
I wish I could set you free
