

Sex Pistols, Holiday In The Sun

A cheep holiday in other peoples misery!

I dont wanna holiday in the sun I wanna go to new belsen I wanna see some History cause now I got a reasonable economy

Now I got a reason, now I got a reason now I got a reason and Im still waiting
Now I got a reason now I got reason to be waiting the berlin wall

Sensurround sound in a two inch wall well I was waiting for the communist call
I didnt ask for sunshine and I got world war three Im looking over the wall
And theyre looking at me

Now I got a reason, now I got a reason now I got a reason and Im still waiting
Now I got a reason, now I got a reason to be waiting the berlin wall

Well theyre staring all night and theyre staring all day I had no reason to Be here at all but now I gotta reason its no real reason and Im waiting at
The berlin wall

Gotta go over the berlin wall I dont understand it... I gotta go over the Wall I dont understand this bit at all...

Claustrophobia theres too much paranoia theres too many closets I went in Before and now I gotta reason, its no real reason to be waiting the berlin wall

Gotta go over the berlin wall I dont understand it... I gotta go over the Wall I dont understand this bit at all...

Please dont be waiting for me
