

Sexy Sadie, A Scratch In My Skin

Staring at the girl next door
I am trying to know
She and i could see the light
... if only she tried...

Friends are talking in the hall
Trying to know it all
Smiling at the way she shines
like a star in the night

Scratching my skin i feel so well
A scratch in my dreams ...her nails so well
Scratching my skin burned by the sun
You take me home

Looking for a place to hold
To hold on to you
Smiling at the way she shines
The sun in the sky

Paying more than I can afford
Friends just want to know
But now she wind me up inside the stars in the night

Scratching my skin i feel so well
A scratch in my dreams ...her nails so well
Scratching my skin burned by the sun
You take me home

Should i wait the sunset, to go out and find her....i am shy
Should i keep on waiting , for the day i met her...to cry so loud
