

Sexy Sadie, I Won't Hurt You

I spill on you so many stories ive been trough
You said that beauty is in the eyes
You said ; a look can tell no lie I said ; Ive got a boy inside and youre my perfect girl

Stars ...stars... where you are

They should lie when they said to me that life is nothing but just a dream because i can see this world spinning so fast inside a void that forget its past so you want a chance to change the world and i wont hurt you

I took off my dress with no reason to show myself less...
But you deserve a better life Ive been waiting for a heart collapse for some beautiful sense of life you were my perfect girl

Stars ...stars... where you are

...and i wont hurt you

God is a rock, God is good, God is love and love is you, you are the real thing Love is in rocks, Love is good, Love is the drug that I use...Use the real thing
