

Shaaman, Move Any Mountain

Move any mountain
Move any mountain

I will not fail nor falter, I shall succeed
My perception is altered I do believe
Faith is so strong now nothing shall bar my way
From conviction, no fiction this is my day

I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain

I walk so tall, ascending I stand so high
Earth below me we both meet above the sky
Asking no fear to be here is, oh, so fine
Shining brightly like sunlight inside my mind

Well not any mountain is capable of movin'
The Shamen and the new generation will approve it
You can be what you want to be
Let your soul and your body and your mind be free
Win every time, we're all that Well going all the way is where I'm at
With delivery smooth like water from a fountain
That's why I can move any mountain

I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain

Move any mountain
Move any mountain

Future feeling new sensation
Body is rocking and the mind is reeling and a rolling, racing
Changing motion
flowing like a river into the ocean
Better get yourself ready for the next transition
Cause the time is right for a new vibration
My vision: One Nation, One Tribe
One day will come The Mighty; move any mountain

Move any mountain
Move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain

I walk to so tall, ascending I stand so high
Earth below me we both meet above the sky
Asking no fear to be here is, oh, so fine
Shining brightly like sunlight inside my mind

I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
(fade out)
I can move, move, move any mountain
I can move, move, move any mountain
