

Shaded Red, Collide

i'm beginning to see our worlds collide you say you're sorry, sorry to see me sorry yet there's no tears in your eyes oh, i try to talk it out, try to talk it out all you want to do is leave me you say you're going to flee leave me, leave us, leave everything where's your sense of decency you say you need to run away, run away from here you gotta run away

you feel you need to run away from me every time i close my eyes, i see you walkin' away from me walkin' away from us walkin' away from love you feel you need to
