

Shaded Red, Faker

you're a faker
and you know it
you've got it all down
you're a faker
and you've shown it
to the world around

you say sorry for one more day while actions never change you say you're free
and yet you've remained shadows hide your face

you're a taker
lying to get around
you're a taker
the way it's going
screamin' when time runs out

you were made to know God in this lifetime
will you see
before it's too late
this is what i pray

need a savior...
