

Shaded Red, Found Someone

didn't i swear i'd be there didn't i make you this promise to hold you tight
forever and ever

yet i fell apart
and my world crashed down
i was sinkin' fast
until i felt true love, oh yeah

all night, all day
i feel your touch
i feel your love
it's your love that makes it right
all night, all day
i feel your touch
i feel your love
it's your love that holds me tight

didn't He come to save us didn't He come to tell us of true love

yet He fell apart
on the cross He bore true love He gave
so i could say, oh yeah
