

Shades Apart, Beat By Beat

riding a wave of summer air the girl with the technicolor hair pure overkill zero to sixty standing still nothing can ever slow her down breaking the speed of sound she doesn't care as long as the music everywhere - she says break it down ?beat by beat ?right or wrong i breaking out ?beat by beat together wee off on the run racing the hottest august sun crank the radio this is the only way to go i have seen hell and hurricanes some things are never gonna change turn it up to ten i need to hear that song again - she says

break it down ?beat by beat ?right or wrong

break it down ?beat by beat ?my favorite song
