

Shades Apart, Got Shot Down stitched up like a wounded soldier rain falls on my parade any time i get the nerve to ask her it two heartbeats too late guys in shiny ties and gq hairdos play every angle right designer suits and foreign sport coupes how i supposed to fight shot one - my chance is done shot two - what there to lose shot down - i should have known

i got shot down ?i guess i should have known people say i better off without her she way out of my league she a killer and i no contender gotta break this losing streak i always see her at the in-crowd parties il bet she so bored like me a hundred guys are lining up to meet her before i count to three

i got shot down ?another night is blown i got shot down ?lost to romeo
