

Shades Apart, Surface Tension

Voices sometimes mine
Whispers in my mind
I can't be alone
No way to compensate
For an insane world
Is this what i've outgrown

I fell it it's all there
I can't ignore the signs
It's not my fault
If someone gets hurt the next time worlds collide

Where the madness ends
Imagination begins
It's getting closer all the time
Fury in my eyes
I'm not repentant for my crimes
Not this time

Is it hate or fear
Rorschach I can't decide
I fear my hate
I don't know how to love everyone
