

Shadow Project, The Circle And The Cross

The great day of his wrath has come and who will be able to stand

Thus I saw the horse in a vision out of his mouth issued fire and brimstone and I beheld and heard an angel singing for the great day of his wrath has come Cast their crowns before the throne

And unto you I say, you are worthy and I will kill the child with death and I will give them the morning star dost thou not judge and avenge us in blood?
A crown of glory that not fadeth away for thy pleasure they are and were created in sight like unto an emerald

And I heard a voice a voice of great thunder and I heard pillars of fire and there appeared a great wonder in Heaven a wonder that deceiveth the whole world an image of the peace that shall smite the earth with all form of plague

King of Kings, Lord of Lords there shall be no more pain nor sorrow, nor death for these former things have passed away

May your circle be unwoven by and by Lord
