

Shaggy, Go Fuck Yourself (GFY)

You ever have one of them days?
When it feels like there's just gonna be no filter
Well I think today is one of them days

I need this money
And times is hard
My boss an a-hole
But I need this job
I'm due for raise
And he's blowin cash
Now he's got me shreddin' paper
Or corporate gone have his ass

I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself

Workin' my last nerve
Girl you're a nine
Every minute you complain,
Lack and appreciate nothing where yo're

I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself

Some days you don't wanna get up
And the stress alive won't let up
Whatever you do don't give up and stress yourself
And I know it's hard to keep your head up
And I know sometimes you get fed up
If you had it your way you'd tell em go fuck themself

I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
I'm just a milisecond away from giving you the finger
I'm tellin' you straight up
Go fuck yourself
