

Shakin' Stevens, Give Me Your Heart Tonight

Oh tonight - I'm walking the streets again
Runnin' away from all of my teasin' friends.
Oh tonight - the stars are in darkened skies
They don't hold all the love
I can see in your lonely eyes.

Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
I don't want to hear a lie.
Don't want the promise of tomorrow
Give me your heart tonight.

Too young - too young to start settling down
I'm getting too old
too old to keep running around
Oh your love is something I don't wanna miss.
End up alone and livin' on a one night kiss.

Cause I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right.
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight.

Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
I don't want to hear a lie.
Don't want the promise of tomorrow
Give me your heart tonight.

I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right.
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight.

I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right.
Just like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight.
