

Shakira feat. Alejandro Sanz, Te Regalo (I Give T

I give to you my waist
And my lips for when you want to kiss
I give you my insanity
And the few neurons I have left

My faded shoes
The diary in which I write
I even give you my sighs
So that you won't leave again

Because you are my sun
The faith with which I live
The power of my voice
My feet that I walk with
You are, my love
My desire to laugh
I will not know how to say goodbye
Because I will never be able to live without you

If one day you were to decide
To leave again from here
I'd close every door
So that you could never leave

I give you my silence
I give you my nose
I give to you even my bones
So that you stay here

Because you are my sun
The faith by which I live
The power of my voice
My feet with which I walk
You are, love
My desire to laugh
I will not know how to say goodbye
Because I never will be able to live without you
