

Shane Barnard, Salvation Still Remains

i prayed You'd search my heart and search my heart You did corrosion fills these walls seclusions fills my head inside this quiet room i feel like i've been removed from the book that bears my name salavtion still remains i'm so alone without my home i'm ashamed to call Your name alone in this place i saw who i am disgusted with myself i found my fear of God

the peace that has no words reigns down on this place such an undeserving soul what an overwhelming Face.
