Shane Hebert, Just Drive

Staring at the ceiling
What is this I'm feeling?
"What is wrong?" she said
"What is wrong?" she said

Staring out the window
A feeling that I can't show
I turned my head and she stared
"What is wrong?" she said
Well I said

Just drive, take me away from this place
Help me to find my escape
Save me from all of this rain

Staring out the window
I hear a song that we know
I turned my head and I stared
"Sing this song" she said
So I said

Tomorrow is a new day, don't let it fade now
