

Shane Hebert, Running Out Of Me

Your eyes, the solstice of my strewn thinking
My thoughts, the solace of my focus on you
I need you to understand that I'm...

Running out of me
I'm running out of what I need
Running out of me

My soul, to relate is to placate and soothe
This sound, insight to the ones who are moved
I need you to understand that I'm...

Running out of me
I'm running out of what I need
Running out of me
I'm running out of what I need
Running out of me

I feel like melting gold
I feel like...

Running out of me
Running out of what I need
Running out of me
Running out of what I need
Running out of me
