

Shanice, Love Is The Gift

Are you sending me
Some kind of sign tonight
Trying to tell me you long for me
To be alright?
I can feel you in this room
Like the sun lights the moon

Memories touch me deep
As if you're here with me
Are you sending this magic
Of what used to be?
Can I send you
Something too?
Cause my heart's missing you

Love is the gift, that I give you tonight
Under these stars to wherever you are
Love is the gift, that I promise I will give you
My heart to yours forevermore

People everywhere
Are reaching out tonight
Can you feel all the power
Of their candle light?
How I long to reach for you
And in everything I do
I do

Love is the gift, that I give you tonight
Under these stars to wherever you are
Love is the gift, that I promise I will give you
My heart to yours forevermore

Every day
In memory of our love
As long as I live
I will share all them
My heart is hoping it
More alive each day
You show me the way
I can almost hear you say
I can almost hear you say

Love is the gift, that I give you tonight
Under these stars to wherever you are
Love is the gift, that I promise I will give you
My heart to yours forevermore
My heart to yours forevermore

(music piece)

Oh Love is the gift, that I give you tonight
Under these stars to wherever you are
Love is the gift that I promise I will give you
My heart to yours forevermore
My heart to yours forevermore
Forevermore
