

Shanice, When I Close My Eyes

yeah yeah yeah....

v1:

darlin, here we are again,
right about now,
there is no need too tell you what i'm feelin'.
i'm so grateful,
to have a man like you,
who knows what to do,
makes me feel like a woman should..
ooohh yeah...

c:

when i close my eyes,
i break down and cry,
it's somethin 'bout the way you love me...
the thought of your kiss,
my heart can't resist,
it's all about the way you love me..

v2:

never thought that i would find..
so much peace of mind,
and every moment that share with you..
sometimes i dont know why...
we fell so deep in love...
but then it all comes back to me because...

stick:

when i'm with you,
i feel so good
no one loves me like you...

when i close my eyes
