Shanice Wilson, A Reason

(Darren Clowers, Shanice Wilson)

I gave my all to you And you made it easy to fall in love I fell in love with someone You pretended to be Was too blind when I was with him Now I see, so

Hook

Don't you come back running?
Now my heart is aching
I can not find a reason
To love you now
And don't you come back crying
Now that love is dying
I can not find a reason
To love you now, how can I love you now?

I thought my life was over And I thought I'd never get over it All the tears I cried Were filled with so much pain Tomorrow promises the pain Will fade away, so

Hook

Bridge
Now it was just a game to you
What you put me through
Will come right back to you someday
Don't think I'm wishing bad on you
Now that I know
You were only here to play
Don't you ever think you have a chance again?
Cause I deserve so much more, so don't

Hook

Vamp Don't you come Back running
