Shanice Wilson, Just A Game

If you're not In love with me Why do you Pretend to be Could it be It's all just a game To you

I put all
Of my faith in you
Trying to be
What you wanted
Me to
Still it seems
It's all just a game
To you

I've tried hard To understand it I don't know Whether or not You planned it Can't you see That love is made For two

If you go I won't regret Won't spend time Trying hard to forget I'll just know It was all just a game To you

I've tried hard
To understand it
Oh no
I don't know
Whether or not
You planned it
Can't you see
That love is made
For two
That love is made
For two
That love is made
For two
But it's all just a game
