Rest on My Promises

By Shanika Anderson

Worrier don't you see

The things you worry about should be given to me

Worrying will not change anything

It's like chasing the wind

You will gain nothing

So why do you keep worrying

When you should be trusting me, trusting me

I won't let my words fall to the ground (3 xs)

So just take a rest on my promises

And watch them come to pass

Meditate on my word

Instead of meditating on the problems you have

I'm the one who'll solve them

What you're trying to figure out

I've already got the plan

So why can't you just trust me

To be who I said I would be

In your life

I won't let my words fall to the ground (3 xs)

So just take a rest on my promises

And watch them come to pass

Be still and know that I am God (3 xs)

I won't let my words fall to the ground (repeat)

So just take a rest on my promises
