

Shaun Groves, One Of Those Days

at the risk of sounding shallow maybe trivial or trite emotional or mellow well how can i say this right guess i'm not the kind that figures life's all rainbows and blue skies still i just can't help but notice i've got no good cause to cry

chorus
and its just been one of those days one of those days
every glass half full every drop lemonade
just one of those days
one of those days
all my worries to bed and my faith wide awake hey hey hey

Theres a smile i can't turn down for a dance across my face and the way i see things now a frown would just be out of place cause i know you're in your heaven yeah with both hands on the wheel and somehow this simple knowing has infected how i feel

you know i'm not blind to imperfection i'm still a realist by trade a pragmatic pessimistic
