Climb On (A Back That's Strong)

S. Colvin - J. Leventhal

Oh, my soul

Sometimes we don't know what to do

We work so hard

Being tough on our own

But now it's me and you

Let's give it up

Sad bones

'Cause we all fall on hard times

But you don't have to stand up all alone

Just put your hand in mine

Climb on

A back that's strong

Hey hey

You can git' what you want

Climb on

A back that's strong

If you could save me

A place in heaven

With a clean well-lighted room

I'll muscle up to Armageddon

And I'll wave to you darlin'

Be home soon

And if you could show me

The story of love

I would write it

Again and again

And then you could be

The woman you need

If you just let me be

The man that I am

Oh, I don't know

Sometimes we try too hard to see

But we got one down now

One more to go

That's when you say

To me
