

Shawn Mullins, Lonesome, I Know You Too Well

Capo 4th

It's 3am and the snakes have moved in,
I'm playing to 4 drunks and me, but the beer is cold and the memories old and the lights are so bright I cant see
And lonesome I know you to well,
You ring in my ears, Just like a bell,
And your hollow Like a dark empty well Lonesome, I know you to well

(Break)

Now time stands still and it spins like a wheel whenever I see her around, but she doesn't know and I'll never show, there's to many eyes in this town
And lonesome, I know you to well,
You ring in my ears Just like a bell,
And your hollow Like a dark empty well,
Lonesome, I know you It's 3am and the snakes have moved in!
