

Shawn Mullins, Sleep Alone

Don't tell me about the nature of desire

I sit and watch you
twisted, tangled in the wire

I'm on the road now
and you're glad to see me go

I guess you'll sit outside and watch your flowers grow.

Oh, I never knew the rounds
I'd take for loving you.

I hope you're happy with your life

I guess you'll sleep along tonight.

I used to wonder how you kept me down so long

I'm glad to say that now I'm back where I belong.

I'm on the road now

and I'm wishing I was fast asleep

I thinking of the promises you never seem to keep.

Oh, I never knew the rounds

I'd take for loving you.

I hope you're happy with your life

I guess you'll sleep along tonight.

Don't try and change my mind.

There's nothing left to say.

Yea you've been buying time but now you're gonna pay.

So don't tell me about the nature of desire

I sit and watch you

twisted, tangled in the wire.

I'm on the road now

and I'm glad to see me go.

I guess I'll sit outside and watch the flowers grow.

Oh, I never knew the rounds

I'd take for loving you.

I hope you're happy with your life

I guess you'll sleep along tonight.
