

Shaya, In Your Eyes

I can see in your eyes.
That you're telling me lies.
Did you think that your eyes would hide your lies?

Can you see in my eyes.
That I'm done with your lies.
And I'm leaving your eyes.
And that's no lie.

I can see in your eyes.
That you're tellin' me lies.
Can you see in my eyes.
That I'm done with you're lies.

And I'm leaving today.
Did you think I would stay?
Don't believe I will stay another day.
And I'm running away, I need to get away.
Start believing that this is our last day.
Leave the past behind, I don't wanna be blind.
Need to find a way to free my mind.
I just hope I will find, someone that will be kind.
I just need a place that will be mine.

I can see in your eyes.
That you're telling me lies.
Did you think that your eyes would hide your lies?

Can you in my eyes.
That I'm done with your lies.
And I'm leaving your eyes.
