

She & Him, Uh-Huh

I should have been the one to break up with you
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I wanna snap your neck and spit on you.
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
If I got a call and said you were dead
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I'd shrug my shoulders and I say what-ev
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
Uh-Huh...

(Speech):

Hey have we met before? Oh yeah I think we have,
Because we only dated for four and a half years, no big deal.
I've only witnessed you sitting on the couch watching Next in your undies,
But it's cool that you act like you have no idea who I am.

I saw you at Amoeba Records last night
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
You straighten your hair and had a henna tattoo
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I wanna shove your face, just shove it
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
My mother thinks you're in the closet
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
Uh-Huh...

(Speech):

It's so weird, because when we used to go out you never even liked the TJ Wantons,
And now we have to drive all the way to marvista or some stupid place and eat in some stupid butte
Because you took the last bag like some immature little clown.

I saw you thursday at the ???
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I was on a date you ruined my night
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I saw you shopping at the Trader Joe's
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I see you everywhere it really blows.
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
Uh-Huh...

(Speech):

Hey, did you ever meet my friend Ian?
He's a computer hacker.
He helped me erase your Myspace page,
And your band's Myspace page,
And your Facebook page.
Happy networking asshole.

So rememebr all the stuff you forgot
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
The Fender Stratocaster you just bought.
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
I'd like to see the look on your greasy face.
You said, Who are you? Who are you?
?(And so for sixteen hundy army base)?
Said, I know you, I know you.
Uh-huh...
