

Shed Seven, Drink Your Love

The dawn is pure
Shining through my door
And it's cleansing me for free
Drink your love
Everybody does
And it's medicine for me

So please
What can you say?
You know i can't supress
I feel just emptiness
Handed on a tray
If you're stuck down to your bench
Or sitting on the fence
Well, then you'd stumble
Out of consequence

My honesty
Is my modesty
And it's my true policy
Drain your head
It's your only trade
And the pressure's feeling me

So please
What can you say?
You know i can't supress
I feel just emptiness
Handed on a tray
If you're stuck down to your bench
Or sitting on the fence
Well, then you'd stumble
Out of consequence

The night will come
The dark's for everyone
And it's shading me for free
Drink your love
Everybody does
And it's medicine for me

So please
What can you say?
You know i can't supress
I feel just emptiness
Handed on a tray
If you're stuck down to your bench
Or sitting on the fence
Well, then you'd stumble
Out of consequence
