

Shed Seven, Speakeasy

I said the first thing
She said the first thing in her mind
There's nothing here to see
There's nothing here to see
I point the arrow
She shoots the arrow at the sea
Then the fire drowns and she's shouting at me
You're running towards me
I can hear the sound of your feet
I can still shut my eyes and see
You're getting faster
I can hear it
I can still shut my eyes and see
I said the third thing
She said the third thing in her mind
There's nothing here to see
There's nothing here to see
I point the arrow
She shoots the arrow at the sea
Then the fire drowns and she's shouting at me
You're running towards me
I can hear the sound of your feet
I can still shut my eyes and see
You're getting faster
I can hear it
I can still shut my eyes and see
I'm on an island
I'm on an island with you
