

SHeDAISY, Everybody Wants You

(Kristyn Osborn, Connie Harrington)

Paper face sterilized
Ravenous enough to swallow the lies
What on earth did we do
Before this town invented you
With life exaggerated
You must be so elated

Chorus:
So how does it feel now that everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
You're so ideal now that
Everybody wants you
But will you even cry cry cry
Falling from that high high high
Everybody wants you

Through the looking gloss lookin' smooth
Flash a smile that climatizes the room
But all the hype and hot air
Can't cover up what's under there
You're stylishly contagious
Until they flip the pages

Repeat chorus

Bridge:
What (what) will you do (do)
When they don't (don't) want you (you)
And how (how) will you feel (feel)
When you have to get real

Is this picture all too vivid
'Cause you look a little livid

Repeat chorus
