

Shel Silverstein, Yes Mr. Rogers

Yes, Mr Rogers, I am living in sin with your daughter.
No, Mr Rogers, we do not have separate rooms.
Mr Rogers, I guess you could use one more scotch and water.
Gee, Mr Rogers, do you have to be leaving so soon?

No, Mr Rogers, I ain't found work, but I'm looking.
I'm sure, Mr Rogers, you must have heard times are tight.
Yes, Mr Rogers, she works and I do the cookin'.
No, Mr Rogers, I won't step outside and fight.

I hope that Mrs Rogers' cold gets better
Maybe she could phone some time
Or write her daughter a letter.
No, Mr Rogers, but thanks a lot for the offer.
If she wanted a ring, I think I could buy one myself
But you see, we're both pleased
With the plain string of beads that I got her.
So you see, Mr Rogers, your daughter ain't goin' to hell.

Yes, Mr Rogers, I am living in sin with your daughter.
No, Mr Rogers, we don't have separate rooms.
Mr Rogers, I guess you could use one more scotch and water.
Gee, Mr Rogers, do you have to be leaving so soon?
