

Shelby Lynne, I Can't Wait

Looking at the face of the one and only
Hoping just to find a loner's prayer
Hooking into feelings of the lonely
Groping in the emptiness of there
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they love me
I can't wait
I can't wait
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they want me
I can't wait another day
I can't wait
Fallen into circles of the colors
Wading in the fire that feels like pools
Wanting needing feeling one another
Never ending motionless and cool
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they love me
I can't wait
I can't wait
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they want me
I can't wait another day
I can't wait
By myself an aching for the morrow
Be still in the move or come too soon
Watching clocks and promise takes me under Bide my time as wishes disappear
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they love me
I can't wait
I can't wait
I'm waiting on the day for somebody say they want me
I can't wait another day
I can't wait
