

Shelby Sifers, I Don't Mind

We sang Miss Mary Mack on the offbeats.
and rosy cheeks.
And later on the couch, all we did was watch TV.
Nothing's on, no, the fire's on, blood is on,
still we woke up freezing.
I hid our baby in the bed we first made love in
and then buried my own head in the sand.
All the people who were watching,
they still recognize my face.
I'll paint it up in seashells.
While you were in bed with her,
I took matters in my own hands.
I didn't eat for three days,
just to let you know.
Just to let you know,
we still don't know.
In my mind you're still there,
with your head on my pillow.
I don't mind.
I don't mind.
