

Shelby Sifers, Things Are Beautiful

Bet you were expecting a love song.
You're right. So many for me...
but I have a serious question. So answer me seriously.
If I was infected with rabies, while trying to save the racoons,
would you give me one last kiss
with a piece of ceran wrap pressed up to your lips?
My cat, he lived to be 19.
We buried him under the sedar tree.
The tree, it began to grow flowers.
The smell was exactly like how you speak to me
Things are beautiful.
Love is distracting, but it's all that we've got.
Things are beautiful. Things are beautiful.
Well jesus he called from a payphone,
to (empty the thoughts?) crowding up in his head.
But soon he had run out of quarters!
And just before the line went dead, he said:
"Things are beautiful.
Yeah, life's a little shitty but I'm doing my best"
Things are beautiful.
Things are beautiful.
