

Shellac, Dog And Pony Show

If I could walk, I'd be a miner
If I could talk, I'd be a preacher

If I was a preacher
Tell you what: I'd save a million souls - even you
If I was a miner
Tell you what: I'd be a damn good one

This ain't a record
Neither a joke
Got us all worked up

And left us naked out here in the sun
But who could say it's sad?
I attach no importance to it just because of my hand just because of my shriveled little hand
I could be a baseball player

Doesn't surprise me now even though we had a map took three days to find Local redneck stare
Taylor from Pizmo
