

Shelly Poole, Liar

Oh my gods who do you think you are
I watched you bail on me
Yes you did
You just let me down so far

And it's a cold hard floor
When someone tells you they don't want you no more

Baby you're not my kind
You couldn't bet on me
Oh one day you're going to see it but I'll be gone
Now you've made up your mind
You want it all so easy
One day soon you'll know it but ill be gone

I was willing to fight for something new
I didn't think me brave enough
But I started to believe in you
I had you oh so wrong
Coz you sweetly sang me someone else's song
And now I know that

Baby you're not my kind...
You wouldn't bet on me
Oh one day you're going to see it but ill be gone
Now you've made up your mind
You want it all so easy
When you know that baby I will be gone

I wish id never met you
You are not strong like me
Oh you told me u were thinking like me
"Is that all that there is 30 years and I'm still here"
Oh you told me you were running with me
But you're nothing like me
You're nothing like me
Oh you told me you were running with me
But you're nothing like me!
