

Sherrie Austin, Good Love Comin' On

There's a whisper on the wind
Something's coming 'round the bend
There's a new emotion
Rising like a river in me
There's music in my heart again
Playing like a mandoline
I can see the sun shining
Smell the wild flowers on the breeze

You shine new light into this lost and loney soul
Now my lonely days are gone
I feel a good love comin' on

You've awoken my desire
Rekindled that old fire
And even when you leave me
I can feel your touch on my skin
I felt the flame before
But darling this is something more
You fill me with a feeling that
I've got to have again and agian

You shine new light into this lost and loney soul
Now my lonely days are gone
I feel a good love comin' on
