

Sheryl Crow, Sad Sad World

I know you hate me,
I see that now
If I was unhappy,
I'd be someone you could still care about
I think it's stupid and sad
That everything turned out so bad
And enemies make the most interesting friends

I'm gonna write you a long letter
I'm gonna get you on the telephone
Three little words to make it all better
Maybe I'll leave this whole thing alone

Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you in it
And I'm a bad, bad girl
For letting you down
And I remember every crazy minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you around

We're too much alike
For our own good
We both hate fighting
No matter how misunderstood

Well, I want to tell you
That you're stubborn
And I want to tell you
I never lied
And I want to tell you
That your friends talk way too much
And I want to know
What happened to that friend of mine

Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you in it
And I was a bad, bad girl
For letting you down
And I remember every crazy minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you around

Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you in it
And I'm a bad, bad girl
For letting you down
I remember every fucked up minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world
Without you around
